4. In exercising the foregoing rights, the Co-operative shall act in good faith and shall not evade or alter any of the specific provisions of this Agreement. The Co-operative will not exercise its rights under this Article or any provisions of this Agreement to discriminate against any employee because of his activity in or for the Union.

The agreed rate of pay will be effective as of the date the new position was filled.

ARTICLE 9 - SENIORITY

1. Seniority shall be defined as the length of an employee's continuous service with the Co-operative for full-time and part-time employees. Students hired after date of ratification shall have their seniority calculated based on the total number of hours worked. New employees shall be on probation for a period of eighty-five (85) days worked during which time they shall not acquire seniority. Upon completion of the probation period, seniority shall be established retroactive to the date on which the employee last entered the service of the Co-operative.

The Co-operative, at their discretion, may discharge any probationary employee during the above time period and said employee shall have no recourse to the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures in this Agreement in respect to this discharge.

The Co-operative and the Union, in special cases, may mutually agree to extend the probation period of an employee for a further period of up to three (3) months but not to exceed six (6) months in total. Such agreements shall be confirmed in writing.

In all cases where a probationary employee is absent from work, the duration of the absence shall be added to the employee's probationary period.

2. If an employee is absent from work due to accident or illness, he shall continue to accumulate seniority, providing such absence does not exceed six (6) months. If an employee is absent from work because of layoff or leave of absence, he shall retain his seniority accumulated prior to his layoff or leave of absence.

2. When the Co-operative recalls an employee who has been laid off, it shall notify such employee by registered letter addressed to the employee's last known address. The employee concerned must notify the Co-operative within five (5) days of the mailing of such letter stating his acceptance or refusal of the employment offered. If an employee fails to report for work within five (5) days of mailing of such notice but does report within thirty (30) days showing good cause for having failed to report within the five (5) days, he shall be notified of the next vacancy and his seniority shall be retained. Good cause shall be: sickness, verified by the certificate of a Medical Practitioner; insufficient travelling time or accident. Failure or refusal to reply to recall notice shall cause all seniority rights to be forfeited unless the recall was for a period of thirty (30) days or less.
3. Employees shall leave their address with the Co-operative and the Union and shall notify both parties of any changes of address thereafter.

ARTICLE 11 - PROMOTIONS AND VACANCIES

1. All vacancies and new positions within the scope of this Agreement shall be filled by the best qualified candidates as evaluated by the Co-operative. Where merit, ability and fitness are comparable and sufficient, the senior applicant will be selected. It is understood that this section applies to full-time and part-time employees.
2. All vacancies and new positions within the scope of this Agreement shall be posted on the bulletin board and employees shall be allowed seven (7) calendar days in which to make written application for such vacancies or new positions. If after the initial posting the position is not filled, it shall be reposted after three (3) months if still required by the Co-operative.
3. An employee transferred or promoted to a vacancy or new position shall be permitted a qualifying period of three (3) months. If the employee so named does not perform the duties satisfactorily within that time, he shall revert to his former position and the vacancy or new position shall be reposted, if still required by the Co-operative.
4. If an employee reverts to his former position, any person hired to replace that employee shall be returned to his previous position if he was hired from within the Co-operative, or shall be laid off in the case of a new hire, unless other duties or positions are available for which such new hire has seniority rights.

ARTICLE 12 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

1. Any complaint, disagreement or difference of opinion between the Co-operative, the Union or the employees covered by the Agreement which concerns the interpretation or application of the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall be considered a grievance.

Any employee who feels that he has been unfairly treated, the Union or the Co-operative may present a grievance. Any grievance which is not presented within ten (10) calendar days of the event shall be forfeited and waived by the aggrieved party.

2. All grievances shall be submitted in writing and shall clearly set forth the issues and contentions of the aggrieved parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, whenever possible, the aggrieved employee (with the Union Shop Steward present or absent at the employee's option) shall first discuss the matter verbally with their Department Manager.
3. The procedure for adjustment of disputes and grievances will be as follows:

The aggrieved party shall be given a written decision on the matter within seven (7) calendar days.
 - (c) If a satisfactory settlement cannot be reached then, upon request of either party, the matter shall be referred to the Board of Arbitration established by Article 13.
4. After the completion of any step in Section 3, if the aggrieved party does not proceed to the next step within ten (10) calendar days, the grievance shall lapse.
5. All negotiations with respect to disputes and grievances shall be dealt with during regular working hours and no employee shall suffer any loss of pay for time spent in such negotiations.
6. The parties may agree to the appointment of a mediator to assist in resolving the dispute.
7. Timelines may be waived by agreement of both Parties.

ARTICLE 13 - BOARD OF ARBITRATION

1. The Board of Arbitration shall be composed of one Co-operative representative, one Union representative and one person acceptable to both the Union and the Co-operative, who shall act as Chairperson. If agreement cannot be reached within seven (7) days or any mutually agreed extension in respect to the appointment of the Chairperson of the Board of Arbitration, the matter shall be referred to the Minister of Labour, who shall be asked to act as Chairperson himself or shall be asked to appoint a Chairperson.
2. The parties may mutually agree to have a single Arbitrator hear a grievance and in such a case, the Arbitrator shall possess the same powers and be subject to all of the same limitations as a Board of Arbitration as constituted in this Article. When rendering a decision, such decision shall be final and binding on the parties.
3. No person shall serve on the Board of Arbitration if he is involved directly in the labour controversy under local consideration.
4. Grievances taken before the Board of Arbitration shall be submitted in writing and shall specify clearly the nature of the grievance.
5. When the Board of Arbitration has been formed in accordance with this Article, it shall meet and hear the evidence of both sides and render a decision.
6. The Board of Arbitration, in reaching its decision, shall be governed by the provisions of this Agreement and decision of a majority of the Board shall be taken to be the decision of the Board and shall be final and binding on all parties concerned.
7. It is distinctly understood that the Board of Arbitration is not vested with the power to change, modify or alter this Agreement, in any of its parts. The Board may, however, interpret the provisions of this Agreement.
8. It is agreed that the expenses of the Chairperson of the Board of Arbitration shall be borne equally by the Co-operative and the Union.

ARTICLE 14 - LEAVE OF ABSENCE

1. If fifteen (15) days' notice is given to the Co-operative, one employee, selected by the Union to do Union work, may be granted leave of absence without pay for a period of three (3) months, during which time he shall not accumulate seniority but shall retain seniority accumulated prior to such leave. If mutually agreed, the leave may be of longer duration.
2. (a) Employees selected as delegates to attend Labour Conventions or business meetings in connection with the affairs of the Union, upon giving fourteen (14) days' notice (seven (7) days in the event of emergency or unexpected circumstances) shall be granted leave of absence without pay for a period not to exceed two (2) weeks. The Co-operative reserves the right to limit the number of delegates to three (3) and they are to be from different departments. Based on operational needs, the Co-operative may approve two (2) designates from one department to attend union affairs.

- (b) An employee will receive the pay and benefits provided for in this Agreement when on unpaid leave of absence for Union work or conventions and/or Union educationals, however, the Union shall reimburse the Co-operative for all pay and benefits during the period of absence.
3. (a) Female employees, after thirteen (13) consecutive weeks of employment preceding the day on which the requested leave is to commence, shall be granted a maternity leave of absence. The duration of such leave shall be at the discretion of the employee and not to exceed a nineteen (19) week period. The employee shall give the Co-operative a minimum of four (4) weeks' notice prior to the start of such leave if the leave requested is in excess of six (6) weeks prior to the expected birth of the child. The employee shall be required to submit a certificate from a qualified medical practitioner certifying that she is pregnant and indicating the estimated date of confinement. The employee shall give the Co-operative a minimum of four (4) weeks' notice prior to the date she intends to resume employment. If the employee returns to work within six (6) weeks of the birth of the child, she shall be required to submit a medical certificate certifying her to be medically fit to work. The employee's benefits held before such leave shall continue to be available. Seniority shall accumulate during the maternity leave. The Co-operative's obligation to guarantee employment shall cease if the employee is unable to return to work at the expiry of the scheduled maternity leave of absence.
- (b) Employees, after thirteen (13) consecutive weeks of employment preceding the day on which the requested leave is to commence, shall be granted a parental leave of absence by the Co-operative. Such leave shall not exceed fifty-nine (59) weeks and must be taken within seventy-eight (78) weeks of the date the child is released from the hospital or from the date an adoptive child is placed in the employee's home. Employees who have not availed themselves of the leave in sub-section (a) above are eligible to a cumulative sixty-three (63) weeks time off. The employee's benefits held before such leave shall continue to be available. Seniority shall accumulate during the parental leave. Applications for parental leave must be made four (4) weeks prior to date of commencement unless the employee has not been informed of the date in time to meet this guideline. In such cases, the employee shall submit their request as soon as possible.
5. Upon completion of two (2) years' service, an employee shall be entitled to one (1) year's leave of absence, without pay, but with the maintenance of seniority rights, for the purpose of educational upgrading or training. An employee granted leave under this section may be required to remain in the service of the Co-operative for one (1) year after the completion of leave of absence. The number of employees entitled to leave of absence may be limited to one (1) at any one time.

5. Upon completion of one year of service, an employee may apply for up to ninety (90) days' leave of absence, without pay, but with the maintenance of seniority rights. Such application shall be made to the General Manager who may grant the request, subject to the operational requirements of the store. The number of employees entitled to leaves of absence may be limited to two at any one time. Such leaves shall not be unreasonably withheld.
6. The maintenance of employee benefit plans during leave of absence, for which there is no pay, shall be conditional upon bylaws of the plans concerned and upon payment of the full cost by the employee.
7. In the event of any one instance of death or serious illness and/or accident in the immediate family, an employee will be granted paid time off, to a maximum of five (5) working days. Immediate family is defined as spouse, children, brother, sister, mother, father, mother-in-law, father-in-law, step-parent, step-child, grandparent and grandchild of an employee.

One (1) day's paid leave will also be granted to enable employees to attend the funeral of a brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law or daughter-in-law.

Additional leave without pay but without loss of seniority may also be granted at the discretion of the General Manager.

8. Employees shall be entitled to compassionate care leave without pay in order to care for their seriously ill child, step-child, parent or spouse for up to twenty-eight (28) weeks without loss of seniority. Benefits shall continue upon payment of the full cost of the premium by the employee. If an employee requires further time, an application may be made by the employee.

 - (d) Six (6) weeks (3/26ths) after twenty-four (24) years of service and after each subsequent year of service.
 - (e) If an employee is absent without pay for a period in excess of two (2) weeks between May 1st and April 30th, his holiday pay shall be computed on the basis of 3/52, 1/13, 5/52 or 3/26, whichever is applicable.
2. The first three (3) weeks of vacation shall be granted between May 1st and October 31st unless otherwise mutually agreed upon between the Co-operative and the employee.
3. When a Statutory holiday occurs during an employee's vacation, an extra day's vacation shall be granted, if the holiday is one for which the employee would have received pay if he had been working.
4. Employees shall receive vacation pay on regular weekly payroll at the time they take vacation. Vacation pay for regular part-time and part-time employees shall be calculated by dividing their previous fifty-two (52) weeks of gross income by fifty-two (52). 5. If the employment of an employee is terminated, the Co-operative shall pay him for any vacation time he has earned.
6. The annual vacation cutoff for all employees shall be April 30th. Employees with less than one (1) year's service shall be entitled to one and one-quarter (1 1/4) days' vacation for each completed month of service up to April 30th, up to a maximum of three (3) working weeks.
7. A vacation list shall be submitted to the employees requesting them to indicate their preference as to vacation dates. Employees with the longest service with the Co-operative will have priority. However, both parties agree that the vacation schedule must be practical insofar as the operation of the business is concerned. The Co-operative, therefore, must make the final decision on such matters.
8. Request for vacation shall be in writing and be completed by April 1st and confirmed by April 30th.

ARTICLE 17 - HOURS OF WORK

If a new schedule is not posted by Friday noon then the schedule already posted shall apply for the second following week.
 - (b) The schedule of regular part-time and full-time employees may be changed upon twenty-four (24) hours' notice of the change, except in the case of an emergency. It shall be the responsibility of the Co-operative to notify employees of the changes to their previously posted shifts.
5. Employees shall be called in or scheduled for no less than four (4) hour shifts. If called in or scheduled less than four (4) hours, employees shall receive a minimum of four (4) hours' pay. This provision shall apply to students only on days other than school days and on days on which the store is open evenings.

6. Employees shall be scheduled shifts of hours on the basis of seniority for all hours for which they are available to work.
7. Requests for days off may be made by an employee to their Department Manager. Requests shall be submitted before the relative schedule is posted. An employee's rate will not be reduced if temporarily filling a position paying a lower rate of pay.

This would not be paid in a department where there is a management employee working the entire shift.
6. The rates of pay upon hiring shall be at the start rates of the various job classifications. New employees having comparable experience or their related competencies exceeding the recruitment requirements for the position, shall be paid the appropriate rate of pay on their wage scale, based on these factors. Unless the experience is exact (including equipment), the twenty-four (24) month scale will be considered the maximum starting rate at the Co-operative's discretion. The Union will be provided with all relevant information regarding the situation by the Co-operative's submission of the approved form.

Re: Harassment Policy

The Co-operative, in exercising its responsibility as an Employer, shall endeavor at all times to provide a work environment which is supportive of both productivity and the personal goals, dignity and self-esteem of every employee. The Co-operative is committed to a healthy harassment-free work environment for all staff. To this extent, the Co-operative has developed this policy with the intention of preventing harassment of its employees and to deal quickly and effectively with any incident involving harassment, including abusive or inappropriate behaviour by customers.

The policy of this organization is that harassment is not allowed in this workplace. Employees who harass co-workers or other individuals at work will be disciplined.

Harassment is against the law. It is unwanted, unsolicited, offensive behavior, comments or displays by a person that is directed to an employee and is made on the basis of race, creed, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, family status, disability, physical size or weight, age, nationality, intimate personal relationship with the employee, ancestry or place of origin, that does, or is likely to cause, offense or humiliation to any employee. Personal and sexual harassment, in some circumstances, constitute a threat to the health and safety of the employee.

If an employee feels he/she is being harassed, they should report the problem to one of the following:

Your Supervisor;
The Harasser’s Supervisor; or
The General Manager

A complaint will be kept strictly confidential. An investigation will be undertaken immediately and all necessary steps taken to resolve the problem.

Regardless of the outcome of a harassment complaint made in good faith, the employee lodging the complaint, as well as anyone providing information, will be protected from any form of retaliation by either co-workers or superiors. This includes demotion, unwanted transfer, denial of opportunities for advancement, as well as harassment of the individual as a result of his/her having made a complaint or having provided evidence regarding a complaint.

Details further to the above are provided in the complete policy of the Co-operative which shall be posted in each location.
